OTHERS PRESENT:

- ❖ CALL TO ORDER: Meeting brought to order at 1:31 p.m.
- ❖ The meeting minutes from December 15, 2022, were brought up for approval. Elaine LeBuhn made a motion to approve, second by Lois Upper.
- ❖ Megan Boucher, Town Clerk, read the oath and swore in new members. Heather Leeke attended virtually so was unable to sign.
- ❖ There was a vote to elect a new Chair and Vice Chair. Ghislaine made a motion to elect Diane Oshin as Chair, second by Anne White and approved unanimously.

Anne White made a motion to elect Ghislaine Boreel as Vice Chair, second by Diane Oshin and approved unanimously.
- ❖ Dave provided an update on the Ice Cube. There was a discussion between Ghislaine and Diane saying that we should move on from the Ice Cubes and focus on another piece somewhere within the town.
- ❖ Torri Gate – Possibly at the start of the Rim or Ying Yang Trail. The group asked Lindsay to ask if an artist from Anderson Ranch would be interested in this project.

- What would the size of the gate be? How high would it have to be for bikers and hikers to go under? Maja will follow up with CMC.
- ❖ Wally (Peace Balloon) was discussed. Dave will send out a map of available art sites in Snowmass Village to SAAB members.
- ❖ Projects to pursue in 2023:
 - Diane suggested for members to read the Strategic Plan and discuss further. What type of projects/pieces the board would like to go through, and come back with ideas for next meeting.
 - The video of the classical pianist to be sent to SAAB and discuss further in February.
 - Linda passed around photos of the Whimsical Art pieces and the board discussed.
 - Art Scholarships for HS Seniors – This was discussed and the board asked Louis to look into this.

This meeting was adjourned at 3:00 P.M.
