4. COMMITTEE UPDATES

4.A. Plein Air Update

Diane Oshin explained 20 artists are confirmed. Oshin outlined conditions of participation and provided an overview of how the team plans to drive traffic to the Art Sale. Breeze Richardson with NPR will be the media sponsor this year, which will include an editorial event on Saturday morning to talk about the different artists/etc.

4.B. Bear Sculptures

Lois Upper outlined the Bears have presented at Town Council, approved/accepted. Julia is working on the agreement with the artists. 4 months of production. In the meantime, site preparation.

4.C. Photos at Bus Stops

Gray Warr provided an update on the photos: Council gave their approval. Photographers selected: Tamara Susa, Linda Rennick, Travis Foki, Sam Ferguson, and Jake Wheeler. Prints to be on aluminum, rounded corners, coating for outdoors. Next steps – contact the artists to congratulate them and sign agreements. Working with Transit for the specific placements.

4.D. Mural Project

4.E. Anderson Ranch Sculpture Project

Lindsay Fortier explained they are currently working on scouting for potential sculpture locations.

4.F. Scholarship Update

Lois opened up discussion about ideas for continuing the relationship and involvement with winners. Discussion followed about ways to incentivize open communication with the winner.

Motion to provide current scholarship winner with $500 in January for a “report” or updated communication on their work: Lois Upper, Seconded: Elaine. All in Favor. Passed.

Motion to continue the scholarship into next year with the inclusion of a project to contribute to Town Hall $2500 + $1000 (project fee): Gray Warr, Seconded: Linda Rennick. All in Favor. Passed.

4.G. Art Map Update

Helen Leeke explained the Art Map is currently with Snowmass Tourism for design development. Plans to have files with printer June 1.
