4. Administrative Updates & Discussion Items

4.a Summer Meeting update

Megan Boucher briefly went over details for the upcoming PTRAB and Town Council Summer Meeting, August 10th 4 - 6 pm on Stark's Deck. John Orton suggested the poster and outreach emphasis "community" a bit more and make sure community members knew they were invited and felt welcome to attend.

4.b Town Updates

Megan Boucher briefly summarized the Town Updates outlined in the agenda.
Members asked for some clarifications on Krabloonik and the possibilities for the land once the business vacates in June 2024. Boucher explained that they have a lease through June 2024 and the land is designated for it's current use. Any changes to that use will have to go through an official Land Use process.

5. NON-AGENDA ITEMS & MEMBERS CONCERNS OR IDEAS

Michael Brizel requested staff bring a more extensive update to next PTRAB on STRs, process and community comments thus far in the regulations.

Mike Mayer mentioned a great "Ullr Festival" that was in SMV July 7-9, which was particularly enjoyable, had great events associated with it and had really nice people attending. Mayer was referring to the Drishti Beats Yoga & Music Festival. Mayer suggested PTRAB and staff get some further information on SMV events. Both general information and then more specifically on what types of events and visitors TOSV is trying to attract to SMV.

6. ADJOURNMENT

Roy Camberg had to leave the meeting at 3:56pm

John Orton motioned to adjourn the meeting. Michael Brizel seconded.

All in favor.

Adjourned at 4:01pm
